WROCLAW EXHIBITION GROUND & ZOO

Wrocław is a vibrant city at the hearth of Lower Silesia. During the course of history it has been part of Prussia, Austria, Germany and Poland. That provides a unique past and a blend of different cultural influences on the city and its places. Thanks to that, it also became an open-minded, creative center for international business and culture. During a 4 hour tour we will show you a part of this amazing city with an unforgettable guided visit in the country's oldest zoo.
